JAPAN BUS TICKETS

Charter Arrangement Conditions

(Chartered Buses, Hire Cars and Guide Services)

Part 1 General Provisions and Contracts with Travelers

Article 1 (Purpose and Scope)

1. These Charter Arrangement Conditions ("these Conditions") set out the specific conditions that apply when Inbound Platform Corp. (the "Company"), a travel agency registered under the Travel Agency Act of Japan, arranges chartered buses, hire cars with drivers and guide services requested through JAPAN BUS TICKETS (the "Charter Arrangement Services").
2. Part 1 applies to contracts with travelers, including individuals and groups, and companies, schools and other organizations that arrange travel for their own members, employees or participants (each, a "Customer"). Part 2 applies to contracts with Business Customers as defined in Article 17.
3. Matters relating to contracts under Part 1 that are not provided for in these Conditions are governed by the Company's Travel Agency Terms and Conditions (the part applicable to arranged travel contracts) (the "Travel Agency Terms") and the Company's Schedule of Travel Agency Service Fees (the "Fee Schedule"). These Conditions constitute a special agreement made in writing under the Travel Agency Terms. If any provision of these Conditions is inconsistent with the Travel Agency Terms, the Travel Agency Terms prevail, except where these Conditions are more favorable to the Customer.
4. These Conditions do not apply to reservations for shared buses, including highway and overnight buses, which remain subject to the JAPAN BUS TICKETS Terms of Use.

Article 2 (Definitions)

In these Conditions, the following terms have the meanings set out below:

(1) "Operator" means a carrier that holds a permit under the Road Transportation Act of Japan to operate a general chartered passenger motor vehicle transportation business (charter bus) or a general passenger motor vehicle transportation business by hire car, and that performs the carriage arranged by the Company.

(2) "Guide Provider" means a person or entity that provides the guide services arranged by the Company.

(3) "Service Providers" means Operators and Guide Providers.

(4) "Quotation" means the individual written quotation issued by the Company in response to a quote request.

(5) "Booking Confirmation" means the document issued by the Company under Article 6.

(6) "Service Provider Charges" means the amounts payable to Service Providers for the arranged services, consisting of their fares and charges (for Operators, the fares and charges determined under the Road Transportation Act) and the toll road fees, parking fees, accommodation expenses of drivers and guides and other expenses related to the services that the Service Providers charge, including consumption tax.

(7) "Travel Arrangement Fee" means the travel agency service fee for the arrangement of the services, calculated in accordance with the Fee Schedule (including consumption tax).

(8) "Out-of-Pocket Expenses" means expenses incurred in connection with the arranged services that are not included in the price stated in the Quotation, such as admission fees, and that are payable at cost.

(9) "Quoted Charges" means the price for the services concerned stated in the Quotation or the Booking Confirmation, consisting of the Service Provider Charges and the Travel Arrangement Fee (including consumption tax) and excluding Out-of-Pocket Expenses.

(10) "Service Date" means the date on which the relevant vehicle or guide is scheduled to start providing services (for services covering more than one day, the first day of such services).

Article 3 (Nature of the Contract and Role of the Company)

1. A contract under Part 1 is an arranged travel contract under which the Company, acting as the Customer's agent or intermediary or in its own name on the Customer's behalf, arranges the services of Service Providers so that the Customer can receive them. It is not an organized (package) travel contract. Any route plan or itinerary proposed by the Company is a proposal for the Customer's decision, and the Company does not undertake itinerary management. The provisions on special compensation and the itinerary guarantee that apply to organized travel do not apply.

2. The carriage is performed by the Operator, as the carrier, under its own terms and conditions of carriage and applicable laws. The Operator is solely responsible for the operation of its vehicles, including operation management, instructions to drivers, the assignment of drivers and relief drivers, compliance with rules on drivers' working hours, vehicle maintenance, safety measures and the handling of accidents. The Company is not a carrier and does not operate, manage or direct the operation of any vehicle.

3. Guide services are provided by the Guide Provider in accordance with its own terms.

Article 4 (Quotation)

1. The Company prepares a Quotation free of charge upon request. A quote request is not an application, and a Quotation does not form a contract.

2. As a rule, the Quotation states:

   (1) the services, dates, times, pick-up and drop-off points, number of passengers, and type and number of vehicles;

   (2) the name of each Service Provider, where determined;

   (3) the total price (including consumption tax), the Travel Arrangement Fee included in it (with the rate applied), and whether toll road fees, parking fees, drivers' accommodation and similar expenses are included in it as estimates;

   (4) expenses not included in the price;

   (5) whether a relief driver is included;

   (6) the payment method and due date;

   (7) the cancellation charges; and

   (8) the validity period of the Quotation.

3. Services are not secured until the Booking Confirmation is issued. If the Quotation expires or the conditions on which it is based change before the Customer applies, the Company may revise the Quotation.

Article 5 (Application)

1. To apply, the Customer accepts the Quotation within its validity period and submits a formal application by the method specified by the Company (including email), together with the information requested by the Company.

2. Where the Customer applies for a group, the provisions of the Travel Agency Terms on group arrangements, including those on the group representative, apply.

3. In addition to the cases provided for in the Travel Agency Terms, the Company may decline an application where the requested services cannot be provided lawfully or safely, including where the itinerary cannot be performed in compliance with rules on drivers' working hours or the number of passengers exceeds the capacity of the vehicle.

Article 6 (Formation of the Contract)

1. The contract is formed when the Booking Confirmation issued by the Company after securing the requested services reaches the Customer. By special agreement under the Travel Agency Terms, the contract is formed upon the Company's acceptance as set out in this paragraph, without payment of an application deposit.

2. The Booking Confirmation serves as the contract document under the Travel Agency Terms and states the arranged services, the name of each Service Provider, the total price and the Travel Arrangement Fee included in it, the payment method and due date, the cancellation charges and the other matters required by law. Where the Customer has consented in advance, the Company provides the Booking Confirmation and other documents by electronic means, such as email with a PDF attachment, instead of on paper.

3. If the Company cannot secure the requested services, the Company will notify the Customer. In that case, no contract is formed, no Travel Arrangement Fee is charged and any amount received is refunded in full.

Article 7 (Price and Payment)

1. The price is the total of the Service Provider Charges and the Travel Arrangement Fee, each including consumption tax. Out-of-Pocket Expenses are payable separately at the amounts actually incurred (including any consumption tax charged on them). No further consumption tax is added to these amounts.

2. The Customer pays the price by the method (such as bank transfer or credit card) and by the due date specified in the Quotation or the Booking Confirmation. Bank transfer fees are borne by the Customer.

3. If the Customer fails to pay by the due date, the Company may terminate the contract in accordance with the Travel Agency Terms, and the Customer shall pay the cancellation charges under Article 9.

4. Out-of-Pocket Expenses, and any increase or decrease in the Service Provider Charges (including any difference between the estimated and actual amounts of expenses included in the price, and any increase or decrease resulting from extended hours, additional distance or other changes) together with the corresponding increase or decrease in the Travel Arrangement Fee, are settled promptly after the services are completed.

Article 8 (Changes)

1. The Customer may request changes to the arranged services. The Company will make reasonable efforts to arrange the requested changes, subject to the acceptance of the relevant Service Provider.

2. Requests made during the services, such as changes to routes, pick-up points or waiting time, or extensions of hours, may be made to the Company or to the driver or guide. Such changes can be made only if the Operator accepts them in light of safety, traffic conditions, applicable laws (including rules on drivers' working hours) and its operation management. The Company does not guarantee that any such change can be made.

3. The Customer bears any increase in the Service Provider Charges and Out-of-Pocket Expenses, and any cancellation charges payable to Service Providers, that result from a change. The Travel Arrangement Fee is recalculated on the Service Provider Charges after the change, and the change handling fee under the Fee Schedule (if any) applies.

4. A reduction in the number of vehicles, days of service or guides is treated as a partial cancellation under Article 9.

Article 9 (Cancellation by the Customer)

1. The Customer may cancel all or part of the contract at any time by notifying the Company. The time of cancellation is the time at which the Company receives the notice (Japan Standard Time).

2. On cancellation for the Customer's own reasons, the Customer shall pay the cancellation charges stated in the Quotation or the Booking Confirmation. If no cancellation charges are stated, the following charges apply, calculated as a percentage of the Quoted Charges for the cancelled services:

Time of cancellation	Cancellation charge
15 days or more before the Service Date	None
From 14 days to 8 days before the Service Date	20%
From 7 days before the Service Date until 24 hours before the scheduled start time	30%
Less than 24 hours before the scheduled start time	50%
After the scheduled start time, or no-show	100%

3. In addition, the Customer shall pay any Out-of-Pocket Expenses already incurred that cannot be recovered.

4. No Travel Arrangement Fee or cancellation handling fee is charged in addition to the amounts under paragraphs 2 and 3. The total amount payable under paragraphs 2 and 3 shall not exceed the total of the amounts that the Customer would be required to pay under the Travel Agency Terms on cancellation of an arranged travel contract, namely the cancellation charges and other costs payable to Service Providers, the cancellation handling fee under the Fee Schedule and the Travel Arrangement Fee. The 100% charge in the table therefore applies in full only where the Service Providers charge the full amount of the Service Provider Charges for the cancelled services, for example where the carriage is treated as completed under the Operator's terms and conditions of carriage because passengers do not board within 30 minutes after the scheduled start time; in other cases, it is reduced to the limit in this paragraph.

5. A reduction in the number of passengers that does not change the number or type of vehicles does not incur a cancellation charge.

6. Any balance of amounts paid by the Customer, after deducting the amounts payable under this Article, is refunded in accordance with Article 11.

Article 10 (Termination and Suspension for Other Reasons)

1. The Company may terminate the contract in the cases provided for in the Travel Agency Terms, including where the Customer fails to pay the price by the due date.
2. An Operator may refuse, suspend or change the carriage in the cases provided for in its terms and conditions of carriage or by law, such as adverse weather, natural disasters, road closures or for safety reasons. In that case, the Company will, at the Customer's request, make reasonable efforts to arrange alternative services. The Service Provider Charges for services not provided are refunded to the extent refunded by the Service Provider. The Travel Arrangement Fee for the arrangement already performed is not refunded unless the cancellation or suspension is attributable to the Company.
3. If the contract is terminated for reasons attributable to the Company, the Company refunds the full amount paid, including the Travel Arrangement Fee, without prejudice to its liability under Article 13.

Article 11 (Refunds)

Refunds are made without undue delay after the amount to be refunded has been determined, to the original payment method or by bank transfer. Refunds of payments made by credit card are processed in accordance with the JAPAN BUS TICKETS Terms of Use.

Article 12 (Responsibility of Service Providers)

1. The Operator is responsible to the Customer and passengers for the carriage, including personal injury, loss of or damage to baggage and delays, in accordance with its terms and conditions of carriage and applicable laws. Operators maintain liability insurance as required by law. The Guide Provider is responsible for its guide services.
2. The Company will assist the Customer in communicating with the relevant Service Provider regarding any claim.

Article 13 (Responsibility of the Company)

1. The Company is liable for damages caused to the Customer by its willful misconduct or negligence in performing its arrangement obligations, in accordance with the Travel Agency Terms.
2. Except as provided in paragraph 1, the Company is not liable for damages arising from the provision of services by Service Providers.

Article 14 (Customer's Obligations)

1. The Customer shall provide accurate information necessary for the arrangement, including the number of passengers, the amount of luggage and special equipment, and the itinerary.
2. The Customer shall ensure that passengers comply with the Operator's terms and conditions of carriage and with the safety instructions of drivers and crew, including wearing seatbelts.
3. The Customer shall not request Service Providers or drivers to act in breach of laws, including requests to exceed speed limits or rules on drivers' working hours, to carry more passengers than the vehicle's capacity, or to stop where stopping is prohibited.

Article 15 (Guide Services)

1. The qualification and language of the guide are as stated in the Booking Confirmation. A guide is described as a National Government Licensed Guide Interpreter (zenkoku tsuyaku annaishi) only where the Booking Confirmation so states.
2. The guide's working hours are as stated in the Booking Confirmation. Any extension is subject to the availability of the guide and additional charges.
3. Guides do not drive vehicles and are not responsible for the operation of vehicles.

Article 16 (Hire Car Services)

Hire cars are provided by Operators licensed to provide passenger transportation by hire car. The Company does not arrange carriage by unlicensed private vehicles. The seating and luggage capacity of each vehicle is as stated in the Quotation.

Part 2 Contracts with Business Customers

Article 17 (Application to Business Customers)

1. "Business Customer" means a business engaged in the travel business, such as a travel agency (including one operating outside Japan under foreign law), a destination management company or a tour operator, that requests Charter Arrangement Services in order to provide them to its own customers under its own contracts with them. Whether a party is a Business Customer is determined by the substance of the transaction. A company, school, event organizer or other organization that requests Charter Arrangement Services for its own employees, members or participants is a Customer under Part 1.

2. Arrangements made for a Business Customer constitute travel service arrangement business under the Travel Agency Act of Japan. No arranged travel contract is formed between the Company and the Business Customer's customers, and the Travel Agency Terms and the Fee Schedule do not apply.

3. Articles 2 to 16 apply to contracts with Business Customers, with references to the "Customer" read as references to the Business Customer, subject to the following:

   (1) Article 3, paragraph 1, Article 5, paragraph 2, Article 6, paragraphs 1 and 2, Article 7, paragraphs 1, 3 and 4, Article 8, paragraph 3, Article 9, paragraph 4, Article 10, paragraph 1, and Article 13 do not apply. The matters provided for in them are governed by the following items and paragraphs 4, 6 and 8 of this Article. Any other reference in Articles 2 to 16 to the Travel Agency Terms or the Fee Schedule has no effect.

   (2) The contract is formed when the Booking Confirmation issued by the Company after securing the requested services reaches the Business Customer. Payment of a deposit is not a condition of formation unless the Quotation so provides.

   (3) The price is the B2B Price defined in paragraph 4, and the Quotation and the Booking Confirmation state the B2B Price instead of the total price and the Travel Arrangement Fee. No Travel Arrangement Fee or other fee under the Fee Schedule is calculated or charged. Out-of-Pocket Expenses are payable separately at the amounts actually incurred (including any consumption tax charged on them), unless the Quotation states that they are included. In Article 6, paragraph 3, Article 9, paragraph 2 and Article 10, paragraph 3, references to the Travel Arrangement Fee and the Quoted Charges are read as references to the B2B Price (in Article 9, paragraph 2, the part of the B2B Price attributable to the cancelled services).

   (4) The Booking Confirmation is the document delivered to the Business Customer under Article 12-5, paragraph 3 of the Travel Agency Act and states the matters required by that Act and the regulations under it, including the arranged services, the name of each Service Provider, the B2B Price, the payment method and due date, and the cancellation charges. It is provided by electronic means in accordance with paragraph 8.

   (5) Charges for extended hours, additional distance or other changes are those notified by the Company and accepted by the Business Customer, plus consumption tax where applicable, and are settled together with Out-of-Pocket Expenses promptly after the services are completed. The Business Customer also bears any cancellation charges payable to Service Providers that result from a change.

   (6) If the Business Customer fails to pay by the due date, the Company may terminate the contract by notice to the Business Customer. In that case, the Business Customer shall pay the amounts under Article 9, paragraphs 2 and 3, calculated as if it had cancelled the contract at the time of termination.

   (7) The amounts payable under Article 9, paragraphs 2 and 3 (including under item (6)) are the only amounts payable by the Business Customer on cancellation or termination, and no handling fee or other charge is added to them.

   (8) In Article 10, paragraph 2, the third and fourth sentences are replaced by the following: "The Company refunds to the Business Customer the amounts refunded to it by the Service Provider for the services not provided." In Article 10, paragraph 3, the reference to Article 13 is read as a reference to paragraph 6 of this Article.

4. The price for a Business Customer is the net price stated in the Quotation, plus consumption tax where applicable (the "B2B Price"). The Business Customer determines its own prices to its customers. Payment is made in Japanese yen, and all remittance fees, including those for overseas remittances, are borne by the Business Customer.

5. The Business Customer is responsible for its contracts with its customers, including providing them with the information necessary for the services (including relevant parts of these Conditions and the Operator's conditions of carriage), and for complying with the laws applicable to its business. The Business Customer shall not represent the Company as the organizer of its tours or as the carrier.

6. The Company is liable to the Business Customer only for damages directly caused by the Company's willful misconduct or negligence in performing its arrangement obligations, up to the amount of the price received for the booking concerned, and is not liable for indirect damages or lost profits. The limitations in this paragraph do not apply where the damages are caused by the Company's willful misconduct or gross negligence.
7. The Business Customer shall indemnify the Company against claims by its customers or third parties to the extent that they arise from the Business Customer's acts or omissions (including any failure to provide its customers with the information referred to in paragraph 5). This paragraph does not apply to the extent that such claims are attributable to the Company.
8. The Business Customer agrees that the Quotation, the Booking Confirmation and other documents are provided by electronic means, such as email with a PDF attachment.
9. If the Company and the Business Customer have entered into a separate written agreement, that agreement prevails over this Part 2.

Part 3 Miscellaneous

Article 18 (Personal Information)

The Company handles personal information in accordance with its Privacy Policy and provides it to Service Providers to the extent necessary for the arrangement and provision of the services.

Article 19 (Governing Law and Jurisdiction)

1. These Conditions and contracts under them are governed by the laws of Japan.
2. Any dispute between the Company and a Business Customer is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Tokyo District Court as the court of first instance.

Article 20 (Language and Amendment)

1. If the Company provides a translation of the Travel Agency Terms, the Japanese text prevails.
2. The Company may amend these Conditions by posting the amended Conditions on the Site. Amendments apply to contracts formed on or after their effective date.

Supplementary Provision

These Conditions take effect on November 26, 2026.
